CHAMBER EMPLOYEE EARNS IOM

Georgetown Chamber of Commerce Director of Programs, Allison McKee graduates from the Institute for Organization Management.

GEORGETOWN, TX, June 27, 2019 –

Georgetown Chamber of Commerce Director of Programs, Allison McKee received her certification of Nonprofit Organization Management after graduating from the Institute for Organization Management (IOM) on June 27, 2019.

Allison, a Georgetown Chamber employee for the last 13 years, oversees Allied Member relations and key Chamber Programs including Annual Banquet, Bridal Show, and Cornerstone Luncheons. The IOM Graduate Recognition signifies Allison's completion of 96 hours of course instruction in nonprofit management and electives in areas such as leadership, advocacy, marketing, finance and membership.

“The staff of the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce are a key reason for our success. Allison’s commitment to further her knowledge will assist our organization for years to come,” said Georgetown Chamber President and CEO Jim Johnson.

“Institute graduates are recognized across the country as leaders in their industries and organizations,” said Raymond P. Towle, U.S. Chamber Foundation’s vice president of IOM. “These individuals have the knowledge, skills, and dedication necessary to achieve professional and organizational success in the dynamic association and chamber industries.”

The Institute for Organization Management is the professional development program of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation. It is the premier nonprofit professional development program for association and chamber professionals, fostering individual growth through interactive learning and networking opportunities taught by university professors, industry experts and leading practitioners in the chamber and association industries.

The Georgetown Chamber of Commerce is an independent 501(c)6 nonprofit organization that facilitates economic success for our community through advocacy, education and collaboration.
