Mission Statement:

To facilitate economic success for our community through advocacy, education and collaboration.

Vision Statement:

A Chamber of Excellence committed to economic development, education, healthcare and public safety.

About the Chamber:

The Georgetown Chamber of Commerce is an independent, not-for-profit 501(c)6 organization that unites more than to 1,000 members businesses and professionals in an effort to help member businesses become more profitable, thereby expanding the economy of the area.

The Chamber does this by:

- Promoting member businesses and responsible economic development;
- Providing leadership in business activities;
- Communicating timely information;
- Creating a forum for understanding and articulating member perspectives on key

BY LAW PURPOSE OF COMMITTEES

Article 7 of the Chamber's By-Laws defines certain responsibilities with committees.

Standing Committees 7.01

The following committees, other than Executive Committee, which is compiled of officers, will be appointed at the January meeting of the Board by the Board Chair:

- (a) Finance Committee - This committee is chaired by the Treasurer and will include additional Board of Directors as recommended by the Board Chair. The Finance Committee is responsible for financial oversight of the corporation. Activities include: 1) Reviewing revenue forecasts and expenditure plans presented by management; 2) Making recommendations to the board for approval of an annual budget at the December meeting of the Board; 3) Recommending selection of an independent auditor each year; 4) Reviewing the annual audited or reviewed financial statements with the auditor; 5) Overseeing the establishment & review of sound financial policies and internal controls; 6) other finance-related tasks as determined necessary by the Board Chair.

(b) HR and Governance – This committee is chaired by the Immediate Past Board Chair and will include additional Board of Directors as recommended by the Board Chair. The HR and Governance Committee is responsible for the review of internal policies related to governance and personnel to include 1) Annual review of the President’s Manual 2) Bi-Annual review of the staff salary schedule 3) Review of additional policies related to HR and Governance as needed.

(c) Governmental Affairs - This committee is chaired by a member in good standing and will include a minimum of nine (9) members of the organization as recommended by the Board Chair. The Chairman of the Board and Vice Chair of Be the Voice of Business are ex-officio members of the committee with voting rights. Governmental Affairs is responsible for identifying and analyzing issues impacting Georgetown and the business community; taking advocacy positions on those issues and communicating the committee’s viewpoint to the Board of Directors for Board approval.

(d) Nominating Committee - A nominating committee as defined in section 5.03 of the by-laws.

Additional Committees 7.02

The Board Chair may create additional ad hoc committees and task forces (collectively, “Additional Committees”) to carry out the Program of Work and appoint their respective chairs and members and delegate their respective voting procedures; provided that the creation of any Additional Committees and committee chair shall be subject to approval by the Board of Directors. Committee appointments shall be at the will and pleasure of the Board Chair and shall serve concurrent with the term of the Board Chair, unless, a different term is approved by the Board of Directors. All committee chairs are required to sign a code of conduct as approved annually by the Board of Directors.

Limitation of Authority 7.03

No action by any committee shall be binding upon, or constitute an expression of, the policy of the Chamber until it shall have been approved the Board of Directors. Committees shall be discharged by the Board Chair when their work has been completed and their reports accepted, or when, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, it is deemed wise to discontinue the committee.

Members of the Committee 7.04

Any members or chairs of a committee must be members in good standing of the organization. The Board Chair is a voting member of all committees. The President and CEO shall be a non-voting member of every committee.

CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

Committee Members agree:

- To act in the best interests of, and fulfill their obligations to the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce and its members;
- To act honestly, fairly, ethically and with integrity;
- To conduct themselves in a professional, courteous and respectful manner;
- To comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations;
- To act in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, without allowing their independent judgment to be subordinated;
- To act in a manner to enhance and maintain the reputation of the organization;

- To disclose potential conflicts of interest that they may have regarding any matters that may come before the Committee, and abstain from discussion and voting on any matter, in which the director has or may have a conflict of interest;
- To make available to and share with staff any information that may be appropriate to ensure proper conduct and sound operation of the organization's governance and management;
- To respect the confidentiality of information relating to the affairs of the organization acquired in the course of service, except when authorized or legally required to disclose such information;
- To not use information acquired in the course of service for personal advantage;
- To not violate any federal, state or local laws governing the organization and to understand and adhere with all governing documents applicable to the organization.

A committee chair who has concerns regarding compliance with this Code of Conduct should raise those concerns with the Chairman of the Board and President. In the extremely unlikely event that a waiver of this Code for a committee chair would be in the best interest of the organization, it must be approved by the unanimous vote of the Board.

Committee Chairs will annually sign a confirmation that they have read and will comply with this Code.

COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

A typical ad-hoc committee will be structured with the following. This does not apply to standing committees as defined in the by-laws.

Committee Chair

The Committee Chair or Co-Chair will be annually approved by the Board of Directors. The Chairperson works with staff, studies the goal(s) of the committee, and corporates with the appropriate Vice Chair. The committee chair recruits individuals for committees whose skills will help.

Length of Committee Chair Term

Committee chairs are approved by the Board of Directors annually. A committee chair may serve up to two consecutive years as the sole chair or four consecutive years if the committee has co-chairs. A committee chair selected to fill an unexpired term can serve no more than three total years as the sole chair or five years if the committee has co-chairs.

Committee Members

Members of the Chamber can express an interest in being a member of a committee by following the qualifications for each committee. A committee member is deemed a member of a committee upon completing committee orientation, attending their first meeting, meeting the qualifications, and acknowledging the code of conduct in writing.

Attendance

A committee member recognizes there is an expectation to attend committee meetings. In most cases, committee members are expected to attend a minimum of 50% of the committee meetings.

Removal of a Committee Member

A committee member is deemed removed from a committee if they are not a member of the Chamber in good standing.

Violations of the code of conduct policy can lead to removal of a committee chair and/or committee member by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Meetings

The majority of time and location of the committee meets can be located on the Chamber's website. The Chamber's closed committee meetings will provide date and time to committee members via email.

Staff Liaison

Each committee is assigned a staff member to assist with the overall function of the committee and monthly reporting.

Reporting

The staff liaison and committee chair for each committee are responsible for providing updates to the Vice Chair as needed. The Vice Chair includes relevant information in their report to the Board of Directors.

AMBASSADORS

Purpose Statement

This networking arm of the Chamber serves as a liaison between the Chamber staff, Chamber members and community.

Goals

The Ambassador Program's goal is to develop a core group, representative of the membership, who:

- Actively welcome and support new and current members of the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce
- Recruit new members to the Chamber
- Recruit new Ambassadors to the committee
- Volunteer at Georgetown Chamber of Commerce events
- Maintain the point system expectations
- Are enthusiastic, positive, and outstanding examples of the business community
- Support staff activities
- Promote the mission of the Chamber and the Chamber's events throughout the community

Composition

The committee shall consist of no minimum number of members. The committee is open to all Chamber members in good standing.

Leadership Structure

Chair(s)

The Chair(s) will be responsible for running the monthly meetings and executing the leadership of the committee. Ambassador Chair(s) are appointed by the Board of Directors and can serve no more than three (3) consecutive years.

Captain(s)

The Ambassadors will have four Captains. Captains are the four highest earning Ambassadors from the previous year that 1) are not an Ambassador chair 2) agree to serve. Captains provide encouragement to their team members.

Team(s)

Each Ambassador is annually placed on a team in January by the Team Captains through a system that divides each Ambassador based on their point total from the previous year (see appendix).

Teams are to encourage one another to be active Ambassadors and serve as an additional level of accountability.

Ambassadors who join the committee during the calendar year are placed on a team via the following 1) they join the team of the Ambassador who recruited them 2) they join the team with the least members of Ambassadors

Ex Officio Members of the Ambassador Committee

The Chairman of the Board and Vice Chair of Creating Value Member (Georgetown Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors) are ex-officio members of the Ambassador Committee with full voting rights.

The Membership Manager and President and CEO also serve as ex-officio members with non-voting rights.

Consideration for Membership

Prospective committee members can apply for the committee by notifying the Chamber office or Committee Chair in writing with a completed Ambassador Application. Applications are re-submitted annually.

Terms of Office

Committee members do not have term limits but must maintain the point system as defined in this document.

Qualifications

The Ambassador Committee Members are expected to attend multiple events each month.

Monthly Meetings

The Ambassador Committee typically meets the first Wednesday of each month. Ambassadors are encouraged to attend the meetings to obtain valuable updates on the committee and Chamber.

Attendance

As defined in the point system expectation, an Ambassador must accumulate 12 points each quarter. Additionally, an Ambassador must be a Chamber member in good standing and attend a minimum of one event per month.

Point System

Point Accumulation

An Ambassador earns points on the following scale:

- 1 Point: Attend a Chamber event
- 2 Points: Volunteer at a Chamber event (per day) / Attend out of town event
- 3 Points: Recruit a new Member to the Chamber
  - Ambassador’s name must be included on the new member’s application for full 3 points

The Ambassador Committee can approve additional points for other volunteer Chamber endorsed activities (i.e. Small Business Saturday) or for certain Chamber events that require additional travel.

Point System Expectation

An Ambassador must accumulate 12 points each quarter. Ambassadors who do not meet the point system expectation will have 90 days to meet the qualifications before being removed from the Ambassador program.

Recognition

Ambassador of the Month

An Ambassador of the Month will be recognized at each meeting. The award is given to the Ambassador who accumulated the most points the previous month. A runner up will also be recognized as the Ambassador who accumulated the second most points.

Ambassador of the Year

An Ambassador of the Year will be recognized at the annual Banquet in January. The award is given to the Ambassador who accumulated the most points the previous year.

Team of the Year

An Ambassador Team of the Year will be recognized at the annual Banquet. The award is given to the Ambassador Team who collectively accumulated the most points the previous year. Each member of the Team that has met the point expectations for all four (4) quarters will receive a credit equal to the price of one (1) ticket at the Banquet. The credit is valid towards an individual ticket, table or sponsorship at that years Banquet.

Appendices

Ambassador Application

An Ambassador Application is kept on file for informational purposes. It includes contact and biography information on each Ambassador.

Ambassador Team Selection

Ambassadors are selected utilizing a “snake draft” designed to spread the point rankings evenly among the teams. Sample:

	TEAM CAPTAINS
	1	2	3	4
Point Ranking	8	7	6	5
	9	10	11	12
	16	15	14	13

Four Highest Points from Previous Year
